

MRS. LATIMER TO WED TUTHILL?

Brooklyn Police Have Never Ceased to Watch Widow of Murdered Man and Her Cycling Friend Since the Funeral.

RUMOR OF AN ENGAGEMENT.

Detective Learns She Sent Note Which He Ignored—Brothers, After Scouting "Inside Job" Theory, Aiding Investigation.

Are Mrs. Sadie Latimer and William H. Tuthill to wed? Such is the report which has reached the neighborhood of the former Latimer home on Hancock street, Brooklyn, where in the dead of night a few months ago Albert C. Latimer was mortally shot under circumstances which have never been explained to the satisfaction of the authorities.

William H. Tuthill is the man whose name was prominently mentioned during the investigation following the tragedy. It was William H. Tuthill who, according to his testimony given at the Coroner's inquest, met Mrs. Latimer in Manhattan and escorted her to her home. On this occasion Miss Fannie Latimer, sister of the murdered man, telephoned her brother that Tuthill and Mrs. Latimer were in each other's company.

Later Mr. Latimer questioned Tuthill concerning the latter's attentions to Mrs. Latimer. The men then agreed that Mr. Tuthill was not to see Mrs. Latimer except in the presence of her husband. Both Mrs. Latimer and Tuthill went bicycling, but always with the consent of Mr. Latimer. It is said.

Mentioned Tuthill's Name.
On his deathbed Mr. Latimer murmured the name of Tuthill. During the inquest, Tuthill was brought from Rockland County by a service paper. He accompanied the detectives to Brooklyn.

To-day the report that Mrs. Latimer and Tuthill are engaged to marry found circulation in many parts of Brooklyn, where both are known. But both Tuthill and Mrs. Latimer denied that there was any truth in the rumor. Mrs. Latimer stated that she had never seen Mr. Tuthill since the inquest, and Mr. Tuthill said he had not in that time seen Mrs. Latimer.

Neither Harry, Byron G. nor William Latimer nor their sister, Miss Fannie Latimer, who was a conspicuous figure at the Coroner's inquest, had heard of the rumored engagement of the widow and her former friend, they said to-day.

Police Still Watching.

It has come to the knowledge of Detective Brady, of the Brooklyn Central Office, however, that a recent communication was sent by Mrs. Latimer addressed to William H. Tuthill at his home on Vanderbilt avenue. Detective Brady was apprised of the fact a few minutes after the note was despatched. He caused a watch to be established. The watch was of such a nature that any reply sent to Mrs. Latimer would have come to his attention.

Tuthill did not answer the note. It was ignored.
It is a fact that the brothers and sisters of the murdered Mr. Latimer regret to-day that they did not pin more faith at the time to the theory of the police, that the shooting of Mr. Latimer was "an inside job." They have since no voiced their feelings to friends. And they have suggested certain important matters to the police which are now being investigated.

"Had the brothers taken us into their confidence, with the investigation of the tragedy was ripe to the extent they have done recently we would undoubtedly have solved the situation which led up to the shooting of Mr. Latimer," said Detective Brady to-day. He added that the investigation of the case had by no means been closed. He stated that the rumored engagement of Mrs. Latimer and Mr. Tuthill was a surprise to him. Both have been constantly under his eyes since the funeral of Mr. Latimer.

CABMEN GOT A RAISE.

In Chicago They Demanded Shorter Hours and More Pay.

CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—A strike of the hack, cab and coupe drivers employed by Chicago livery stables and undertakers was averted at a joint meeting of the employers, teamsters and the Executive Board of the Chicago Federation of Labor early to-day. The drivers demanded a working day of twelve hours, $14 a week, and 25 cents an hour overtime, but a compromise was reached on $12 a week for seven days' work of twelve hours each and 25 cents an hour overtime. The new scale goes into effect Nov. 1.

MISSION WARES THE NEWEST.

Jordan, Moriarty & Co. Offer a Big Assortment for Householders.

The latest thing in housefurnishings—mission furniture—bids fair to be the choicest selection for the coming season. Have you seen it? It is to be found at Jordan, Moriarty & Co.'s big store at Nos. 125 to 129 East Twenty-third street. The mission furniture is the prevailing style and in one of the large warehouses of this firm will be found a fine display of this style. The display is of green and with matched surroundings the effect is magical. The floors of housefurnishings, everything from carpets and rugs to large pieces of furniture and smaller but more expensive pieces, make this store a place for public inspection.

MRS. SADIE LATIMER AND W. H. TUTHILL. WHO, IT IS SAID, ARE ABOUT TO MARRY.

YOUNG GIRL WHIPS A CRUEL DRIVER.

Alice Burton Took the Club and Used It with Effect on Horse-Beater.

Alice Burton, a sixteen-year-old school-girl of Green Nook, N. J., is the heroine of her class. The cause of it all is her attack on a brutal driver who was belaboring his horse with a club.

Miss Burton was on her way to school when she saw a teamster trying to force a weak horse to pull a heavy load up a steep hill. The animal had fallen several times to move the vehicle, when the driver seized a club and began beating the horse unmercifully. This so enraged Miss Burton that she ran to the rescue. With blazing eyes she called upon the man to desist, and when he paid no heed to her she took the club from him and rained blows upon his shoulders. The driver made no effort to resist, but contented himself with trying to ward off the blows. From sheer exhaustion Miss Burton finally desisted, and the man was allowed to go with a warning never to beat his horse again.

FOUR HUNDRED AT COURT.

Not New York Elite, but Recipients of King Edward's Honors.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Nearly four hundred recipients of coronation war honors were invested by King Edward at Buckingham Palace to-day. The investiture was carried out in the ball room with unusual ceremony. All the great officers of State were present and the scene was particularly brilliant as the participants, in accordance with His Majesty's instructions, wore all the ribbons, orders or medals they possessed.

SUITS FOR FALL AND WINTER

Men's and Young Men's $10 Single and Double Breasted

JUDGE by these Suits the possibilities of Twentieth Century outfitting. Designing of the highest order, assuring fit and distinctive grace to the garments equal to costliest custom work, would be impossible at the price if we did not operate so largely, dispense with middle merchants and adhere to a cash system of business. These are suits made of pure wool, heavy-weight fabrics—Tweeds, Scotchies, cassimeres, chevviots and meltons in mottled mixtures, overplaid and plain shades, and also an extraordinarily good black thibet. The colors are absolutely fast. The making exhibits the most finished military and business models. The lining fabrics are the durable, shaggy sort. The seams are sewed with silk. On sale one week only, ending next Friday.

Shoe-dissection.

"Scratch a Russian and you'll find a Tartar." Scratch a $3.50 shoe sole, and you'll find Hemlock, or imitation "Oak" leather, beneath the black finish.

Hemlock or "Yankee Oak" soles, are as short lived as they are cheap and deceptive.

Brittle, stiff, and heavy, they soak up water like a sponge, and "crumble" under friction.

Live Oak soles add a dollar to the wear of shoes, and about 15 cents to their cost.

Regals are the only shoes at $3.50 which prove Live Oak leather in the soles of every pair.

That proof is the shoe-dissection shown in Regal store windows, and illustrated above.

Regals are $6.00 shoes for $3.50, through Tannery to Consumer methods.
